THE MANAGER

JOSEPH SALVATORE ALTOBELLI

Batted L, Threw L. Born May 26, 1932, in Detroit, Michigan. Height 6-0, Weight 185. Married, six children. Lives in Rochester, New York.

Fortified with an excellent baseball background, Joe Altobelli moves into the Giants 1977 manager's job with excitement and a positive attitude . . . Altobelli is "thrilled" to have one of only 26-major league managing jobs available . . . the 44-year old native of Detroit has learned his trade well, managing in the Baltimore Orioles organization . . . in six years of guiding Rochester of the International League, Altobelli recorded five first place finishes and one Little World Series title . . . Joe has been associated with the Baltimore organization since going to Rochester as a player in 1963 . . . he remained with the Red Wings over the last 3½ years of his playing career before retiring in mid-1966 to begin managing . . . in ten years of managing from Bluefield, (Appalachian "Rookie" League), to Rochester, he has won four pennants, three "Manager of the Year" awards, (Appalachian in '67 and International in '71 and '74), and has finished below .500 only twice . . . in 1971, his first year at Triple-A ball. Altobelli's club including present major leaguers Bobby Grich and Don Baylor, won the International League play-offs and the Little World Series . . . Joe played in only 166 big league games and spent most of his career at the Triple-A level . . . but he enjoyed some impressive seasons, leading the International League in both home runs (31) and RBI (105) while playing for Montreal in 1960 and then hit .295 with 20-homers for Rochester in 1965, his last full season as a player . . . during his major league playing days, Altobelli worked under managers Al Lopez and Kerby Farrell at Cleveland and under Sam Mele at Minnesota . . . not having seen most of the Giant players perform, Altobelli is going into the season with a wait and see attitude . . . Altobelli has made it clear he'll have open communication with the players saying, "My door is open to ball players who want to come in and discuss baseball . . . and, the door swings the other way also when I want to go into the clubhouse and discuss baseball with the players" . . . Altobelli says he's not a strict disciplinarian but will enforce some type of dress code, hair code and curfew during the season . . . the eighth man to manage the Giants since the club moved to San Francisco makes his off-season home in Rochester with his wife Pat and four of their six children still living at home.

THE COACHES

JAMES HOUSTON DAVENPORT

INFIELDER. Batted R, Threw R. Born August 17, 1933, in Siluria, Alabama. Height 5-11, Weight 175. Married, four sons, one daughter. Lives in San Carlos, Ca.

A baseball season wouldn't seem like a baseball season unless Jim Davenport was in a San Francisco uniform. Jim has been part of the Giants organization in all but two of his professional seasons . . . all his major league playing days were spent in San Francisco . . . his three minor league stops were also at Giant outposts . . . Davenport returns for his second consecutive season on the coaching lines . . . he handled the first base duties last year and expects that same assignment this season . . . manager Joe Altobelli says he's going to stress defense and there's no one more accomplished at defense than Davenport who racked up records for fielding percentages for third basemen from 1959 through 1961 and won the Golden Glove Award in 1962 . . . in the 1962 World Series he tied records for most double plays by a third baseman (4) and most double plays started by a third baseman (4) in a Series . . . Davenport set the major league record for most consecutive errorless games (97) for third basemen from July 29, 1966, through April 28, 1968 . . . also holds the N.L. record of most consecutive errorless chances (137) by a third baseman from May 22 to September 30, 1967 . . . Jim attended Southern Mississippi University where he earned three letters in both baseball and football and starred at quarterback in the 1953 and 1954 Sun Bowl games . . . in his first pro season he led the Cotton States League in batting and total bases (239) . . . led the N.L. with 17 sacrifice flies in 1958, his rookie year . . . ended his active playing career on July 13, 1970, and coached for San Francisco the rest of that season . . . the next three seasons he was manager at Phoenix, the Giants' AAA club in the Pacific Coast League . . . Jim coached under Johnny McNamara at San Diego in 1974-75 . . . spent winter months in Giant organization, visiting Bay Area businesses and making appearances on behalf of season ticket sales.

DETERMINING PERCENTAGES

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take that number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING MAGIC NUMBER: determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

HERMAN PAUL STARRETTE

PITCHER. Batted R, Threw R. Born November 20, 1938, in Statesville, North Carolina, Height 6-1, Weight 185. Married, one child. Lives in Statesville.

A former teammate re-joins Joe Altobelli as Herm Starrette becomes the Giants Pitching Coach for 1977 . . . Starrette and Altobelli played on the Rochester club in 1964 and '65 . . . Starrette was also the minor league pitching coach for the Baltimore organization for six years (1968-1973), and worked with members of Altobelli's Rochester club . . . Starrette began his coaching career at Rochester in 1967 . . . Starrette pitched three years in the major leagues . . . he had his best professional year when he racked up 17 wins for Aberdeen in 1959 . . . at Aberdeen, Herm pitched a 17-inning game against onetime Giants pitcher Gaylord Perry that wound up in a tie . . . in the re-match, Starrette beat Perry in 13-innings . . . Starrette has spent the last three seasons as pitching coach of the Atlanta Braves . . . he's credited with improving that club's pitching and raising it to second place from last in the National League during the 1974 season . . . Altobelli, new to the majors, will need a pitching coach who knows the hitters and Starrette is that man . . . Starrette attended Cool Spring High School in Statesville and graduated in 1956 . . . he then attended Lenior Rhyne College in Hickory, North Carolina . . . Starrette spent the winter months giving baseball clinics at high schools and speaking before youth groups.

GARY WAYNE ALEXANDER

CATCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born March 27, 1953, in Los Angeles, California. Height 6-2, Weight 200. Single. Lives in Los Angeles.

Called up from Phoenix on September 3rd, Alexander was the Giants starting catcher for 23 games . . . was impressive with the bat as he had been at Phoenix . . . he was one of the Pacific Coast League's leading hitters, winding up at .319 in 109 games . . . Gary's biggest area of improvement will have to come in handling the low pitches . . . if his defense is tightened, he'll probably be the Giants starting catcher . . . logged 115-hits with Phoenix including 18-doubles, 12-triples, 17-homers and 76 RBI . . . was not pleased with his strikeout figure and will have work on hitting inside pitches . . . Gary has progressed through the Giants system, racking up impressive marks such as 23 homers for Lafayette in 1975 and fourth in hitting that year . . . he led the California League in homers in 1974 and was the league M.V.P. that season . . . in fact, Alexander was on the league all-star teams in 1973, '74 and '75 . . . while at Fresno in '74 was voted that club's most popular player and in a poll of managers was selected as the league's most dangerous hitter . . . he also was named Topp's Player of the Year both at Fresno and at Lafayette . . . Gary participated in baseball and football at Lock High School in Los Angeles graduating in 1970 . . . he also attended L.A. Harbor Junior College where he was told by his coach he was "not a major league caliber player" . . . Alexander was signed by scout George Genovese . . . has fine speed for a catcher and his arm is strong although he needs some work on getting rid of throws quicker . . . Alexander and teammate Jack Clark's careers have moved along together as they were one-two in Calif. League RBI in '74 and tied for the Texas League home run championship in '75 . . . each was called up to the Giants from Phoenix on September 3rd of last year, after hitting well over .300 . . . Alexander was catcher for John Montefusco's no-hitter against Atlanta last season . . . played winter ball for Escogido in the Dominican.

CHRISTOPHER PAUL ARNOLD (Arlo)

INFIELDER. Bats R, Throws R. Born November 6, 1947, in Long Beach, California. Height 6-0, Weight 175. Married. Lives in Mesa, Arizona

Chris had to battle his way on to the Giants roster the past two seasons and probably will have to do it again this year . . . a versatile performer, Arnold can play most of the infield positions and even caught at one time in his career . . . was on the Giants roster all last season and thus qualified for his four year pension . . . celebrated the event with champagne in the Giants clubhouse . . . appeared in 60 games in '76 with only 69 at bats, 45 of them as a pinch hitter . . . he had 12 pinch hits and 5 RBI . . . in 1974 Arnold was one of the best Giant pinch hitters with nine for 38, four RBI, two of them go-ahead runs . . . in 1973, Chris pinch hit a grand slam homer in the ninth inning off Ramon Hernandez of Pittsburgh for an 8-7 win . . . Chris was optioned to Phoenix in July of 1975 and then became property of the PCL team . . . his solid hitting credentials kept him on the roster as he would up hitting .340 for Phoenix and was that club's designated hitter . . . in '75 and '76 Arnold came to the Giants training camp as a non-roster player and fought his way back to the Major League level . . . Arnold was signed out of Arcadia High School in Southern California by scout George Genovese . . . Chris spent two years on active duty with the Navy's Submarine Division between 1968 and 1970 . . . worked for United Development in Tempe during the off-season.

JAMES LELAND BARR (J.B.)

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born February 10, 1948, in Lynwood, California. Height 6-3, Weight 205. Married, one daughter. Lives in San Mateo, California.

His sixth season with the Giants proved to be one of the best for Jim Barr . . . in the regular rotation, Barr had 37 starts and 8 complete games . . . he threw three shutouts and hurled (252) innings . . . J.B. also racked up his highest victory total and many times proved to be the "stopper" in the Giants starting rotation . . . Among those 15 victories, four against the champion Cincinnati Reds as Barr won all his '76 assignments against Cincy . . . after a slow start in which he lost four of his first five decisions, Barr put it together and won seven and lost only two through June and July and then won five of six decisions the last month of the season . . . against the Reds, Dodgers and Phils, Barr ran up a 5-2 mark . . . finished up with the second best ERA among the starters at 2.88. At one point in the season Barr had an ERA of 2.60 with only eight runs in 56 innings . . . Barr seemed most effective when his fastball was hitting the inside corner . . . Jose Cardenal and Bill Madlock of the Cubs took exception to that pitching style in an early season game that wound up in a tussle between the clubs . . . Barr was the Giants player representative in '76 . . . Jim is one of the fine players turned out by Rod Dedeaux at the University of Southern California . . . he helped pitch the Trojans to Pacific Eight Conference and College World Series Championships in 1968 and '70 . . . One of Jim's great thrills was pitching 16 innings in a 48-hour period to help the Trojans wrap up the '70 College World Series . . . Jim was named to the All-College World Series team that year . . . Barr also pitched semi-pro ball for the Alaska Goldpanners of Fairbanks in the National Baseball Congress Tournament in 1967-68-69 . . . in 1972 Jim set a Major League record for most consecutive batters retired (41): the last 21 against Pitt. at San Francisco, Aug. 23rd and the first 20 at St. Louis, Aug. 29th . . . Jim, a Business Administration graduate of U.S.C. worked for the Giants in the off-season helping with season ticket sales . . . Jim was the Giants number two choice in the June, 1970 Special Phase draft with college teammate Dave Kingman number one . . . Jim has a younger brother, Mark, who pitches in the Boston Minor League organization

JACK ANTHONY CLARK

OUTFIELDER-INFIELDER. Bats R, Throws R. Born November 10, 1955, in New Brighton, Pa. Height 6-1, Weight 170. Single. Lives in Covina, California.

Has displayed all the credentials necessary to be a fine major league hitter . . . he'll be tried at one of the outfield positions with the best bet being right where he could be the replacement for the traded Bobby Murcer . . . left field would be second choice and it'll be a matter of how Manager Joe Altobelli wants to position Clark and Willie Crawford in the San Francisco outfield . . . Jack played all 26 of his games for the Giants last year in the outfield . . . he had minor league experience at third base and could help out there if the need arises . . . however, stability at one position should help his mental outlook . . . has the necessary speed and quickness with 16 steals at Phoenix and another six with the Giants . . . in 1975 stole nine bases in nine tries with Lafayette . . . hit a strong .323 for Phoenix in 131 games . . . led the Pacific Coast League in triples with 16 . . . also has 17 homers and 29 doubles before being called up to the Giants on September 3rd . . . Clark was named the Topps Player of the Month for August . . . previously won that award at Great Falls in his rookie year . . . in 1975 Clark tied for Texas League Homer Title with teammate Gary Alexander . . . both were named to the National Association AA All-Star Team . . . in 1974, Clark led the California League in RBI and total bases (254), second in batting, fourth in home runs, league's Rookie of the Year . . . signed by scout George Genovese as a pitcher out of Gladstone High School in Azusa, Calif. where he was 11-3 with a 1.25 E.R.A. as a senior . . . also hit .517 with 5 HR's and 37 RBI in Spring 1973 . . . played Little League and American Legion Ball.

ROOKIE RULE

The Baseball Writers Association of America considers a player a rookie unless during the previous season or seasons he has (1) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

The 25-player limit is in effect from Opening Day through August 31.

Players on the 1977 Giants roster who have major league experience but are still eligible for the Rookie of the Year award are: Gary Alexander, Jack Clark, Bob Knepper, Greg Minton, Frank Riccelli, Horace Speed and Tommy Toms.

TERRY STANTON CORNUTT

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born October 2, 1952, in Roseburg, Oregon. Height 6-2, Weight 195. Married. Lives in Roseburg, Ore.

Terry earned a promotion to the parent roster with a sparking 7-0 record as a reliever for the Phoenix Giants . . . Cornutt also racked up five saves as he appeared in 41 games for the Pacific Coast League club . . . Cornutt has progressed through the Giants system with stops at Fresno, Amarillo, Lafayette and Phoenix . . . he and Tommy Toms were top relievers for the Phoenix club . . . has played both baseball and basketball in high school and college . . . was winning pitcher in the deciding game in Oregon's annual Metro-State All-Star series in 1970 . . . attended Linn-Benton Community College (Albany, Oregon) . . . in 1972 he was named to the National Junior College All-American second team as an outfielder . . . in the regional tournament that year Cornutt had his greatest baseball thrill as he pitched a no-hitter against Mesa, Junior College (Colorado) in the Regional Tournament at Portland, Oregon . . . played both Babe Ruth and American Legion ball . . . signed by scout Dick Wilson for the Giants . . . played Winter ball for Obregon club of the Mexican League.

WILLIE MURPHY CRAWFORD (Murph)

OUTFIELDER. Bats L, Throws L. Born September 7, 1946. Height 6-1, Weight 205. Married, three children. Lives in Los Angeles, Ca.

At 30 years of age, Willie Crawford becomes one of the Giants veterans . . . obtained in the three for three trade with St. Louis that also brought San Francisco Vic Harris and John Curtis . . . Crawford begins his 14th Major League season . . . he logged his third Major League season of 100 or more hits in '76 with 119 while playing in 120 games for the Cardinals . . . his .304 average was also the best for him in a full Major League season . . . Crawford is known for his hitting and has especially torn things apart at Candlestick Park . . . he recorded a .462 average on the Giants home field last year getting 12 hits in 26 at bats . . . Willie, in an early season series against the Giants in 1976, was 3-4 and 5-7 . . . obviously likes Candlestick Park . . . he also has five lifetime homers in the Giants home . . . Crawford scored the winning run for St. Louis 11 times last season to lead the club and he also had four game winning runs batted in . . . if he's not a starter, Crawford's value isn't diminished . . . he was .313 as a pinch hitter in '76 (5 for 16) . . . Willie can play any of the outfield positions but spent most of his time in right for St. Louis last season . . . Crawford is the cousin of Curtis Rowe a forward with the Boston Celtics of the N.B.A. . . . attended Fremont High School in Los Angeles where he also won track honors . . . attended real estate school in the off season.

JOHN DUFFIELD CURTIS (J.C.)

PITCHER. Bats L, Throws L. Born March 9, 1948, in Newton, Massachusetts. Height 6-2, Weight 185. Married, no children. Lives in Maryland Heights, Missouri.

Obtained by the Giants in part of the trade that sent John D'Acquisto, Mike Caldwell and Dave Rader to St. Louis . . . it's hoped Curtis can become the starting southpaw the Giants need in the pitching rotation . . . John could also be valuable in the bull pen as previous relief work has proven his worth there . . . two seasons ago had 15 relief appearances with Cardinals and posted an E.R.A. of 1.89 followed up with 21 relief appearances in 1975 and 22 last year . . . in three seasons with the Cardinals, Curtis was 24-34 . . . control is the key to Curtis becoming a winner . . . he throws a fast ball and a slider has enough versatility so that he may be a starter, a spot starter or a long reliever . . . he started his Major League career with Boston, appearing briefly with the Red Sox in '70, '71 and '72 . . . He set his pro career highs in games started, wins and innings pitched in 1973 and led Boston staff with four shutouts . . . Curtis was an outstanding pitcher at Smithtown Central High on Long Island . . . he was Cleveland's number one draft selection in 1966 but passed up pro ball at that time and instead enrolled at Clemson University . . . in 1967 Curtis was picked for the U.S. Pan American team where he became the first U.S. pitcher to defeat Cuba as the United States team won the Gold Medal in Baseball for the first time . . . Curtis then became Boston's first choice in the Secondary Phase of the June draft (1968) and signed after his sophomore season at Clemson . . . eventually earned his degree in History in 1970 at Clemson . . . his hobbies include reading and writing and worked one off-season as a sports writer . . . Curtis has also been a substitute teacher and has worked in real estate . . . he spent last winter in a St. Louis Bank and wants to continue in the commercial banking field for the next few years.

ROBERT ALAN DRESSLER (Rob)

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born February 2, 1954, in Portland, Oregon. Height 6-3, Weight 180. Married, one daughter. Lives in Portland, Oregon.

A 5-1 record during the first month and a half at Phoenix earned Dressler the '76 promotion to the Giants . . . however he wound up with a disppointing 3-10 mark with the Giants . . . ran into some tough luck in his first few outings when his defense betrayed him . . . because of the early losses, never could get mentally relaxed and never could rely on his good breaking pitches . . . managed to defeat Atlanta, Houston and Montreal for his three victories which gives him a total of four including his first Major League win, a 4-1 complete game win over San Diego in 1975 . . . graduated Madison High in Portland in 1972 . . . played baseball, basketball and football . . . pitched Madison to Portland Interscholastic League Championship in his senior year . . . named to All-Pil and All-State teams in his junior and senior years . . . on Metro team in Oregon State vs. Metro All-Stars series in '72 . . . signed by scouts Dick Wilson and Jack Shafer and was first selection in June 1972 free agent draft . . . played Little League, Babe Ruth and American Legion ball . . . in his first two years as a professional, had 76 fielding chances and didn't make an error . . . attends Portland State University during off-season, majoring in accounting . . . played Winter ball in the Dominican for the Licey club.

DARRELL WAYNE EVANS

INFIELDER. Bats L, Throws R. Born May 26, 1947, in Altadena, California. Height 6-2, Weight 205. Married, one son. Lives in Decatur, Georgia.

Obtained in the June 13, 1976 trade with Altanta that also brought the Giants Marty Perez in exchange for Willie Montanez, Craig Robinson and Minor Leaguer Mike Eden . . . Darrell never really got it going for the Giants . . . he did raise his average 33 points after coming over in the trade . . . Darrell made a rather dramatic first home appearance for the Giants . . . in a twi-night doubleheader against San Diego, he hit a two run homer in the first game off Rookie-of-the-Year Butch Metzger to propel the Giants to a 7-6 victory . . . then in the nightcap he crashed his fourth career Grand Slam to give the Giants the runs for an 8-7 win . . . he had six RBI in those two games and for the three game series with San Diego he was five for 12, seven RBI . . . quite a debut for the Candlestick Fans! . . . Darrell also had another wild day at the plate . . . in an August 15th game against the Phils he was 4-5, scored three runs, hit a pair of homers and drove in four . . . his second homer was a game-winner, a ninth inning shot off Wayne Twitchell, good for three runs and a 9-5 win. Evans wound up with some impressive batting figures against San Diego (.330), against the Mets (.308) and against Cincinnati (.280) . . . Evans experimented with contact lenses and then went back to glasses and that may have been one of the reasons his batting fell off . . . at start of year, Evans set a NL record for getting a walk in 15 consecutive games, April 9-27 . . . he'd had 124 walks in '73 and 126 in '74, both League-leading figures . . . he had 105 in '75 . . . this year he had only 72 although his plate appearances were also the fewest in the last five years . . . Darrell will again be the Giants first baseman in spring training . . . but with a hole to plug at third, Evans could see considerable duty there . . . he was primarily a third baseman during his years in Atlanta . . . in fact he set a National League record in 1974 by taking part in 45 double plays, the most ever for a third baseman . . . in 1973, Evans was part of the only trio of players to ever hit over 40 home runs in one season for the same team . . . he hit 41 to go with Hank Aaron's 40 and Dave Johnson's 43 . . . Evans also made the All-Star squad that year

. . . Darrell comes from an athletic family . . . his grandfather and uncle each played professional baseball and his mother and aunt were members of Orange Lionette Pro Softball team in Pasadena . . . Evans was an All-California in both baseball and basketball at Pasadena City College and led that school to championships in both sports in 1967 . . . graduated from John Muir High School in Pasadena . . . Evans was drafted by Atlanta from Vancouver of the Oakland Athletics organization on December 2nd, 1968 . . . one of his hobbies is stamp collecting . . . he spent the winter in Georgia attending real estate school.

MONROE DUKE GREENFIELD

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born December 21, 1952, in Coeur D'Alene, Idaho. Height 6-4½, Weight 190. Single. Lives in Coeur D'Alene, Idaho.

Impressive statistics at Fresno of the California League have given Greenfield a shot at making the jump from Class A to the majors . . . gained the Giants attention by winning the earned run title in the California League with a 2.45 showing (48 runs in 114 innings.) . . . Greenfield appeared in 47 games for the Fresno Giants and wound up 12-9 . . . only one of the 47 appearances was a start . . . he struck out 92 and walked only 47 California League hitters . . . in his first year of pro ball, Greenfield also had an impressive ERA, 2.82 with Great Falls of the Pioneer League . . . Greenfield took part in the Giants Arizona Instructional League team in the fall of 1976, appearing in 16 games with an 0-2 mark but tying for the lead in saves with 6 . . . he pitched 26 innings and struck out 21 with 10 walks and an ERA of 3.12 . . . attended Coeur D'Alene Senior High, graduating in 1971 . . . went on to North Idaho Community College for two years and then transferred to Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington for his final two years of college . . . he played varsity baseball at Gonzaga and in 1974 won 3 lost 1 in helping Gonzaga to the Big Sky Conference Championship . . . his greatest thrill in college baseball was pitching six perfect innings against the University of Washington . . . Greenfield also played American Legion Baseball and was signed to his first pro contract by Giants scout Dick Wilson . . . in 1973 Greenfield was voted North Idaho's Most Outstanding baseball player . . . his hobbies include motorcycling, hunting and other sports.

EDWARD LOUIS HALICKI (Ho-Ho)

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born October 4, 1950, in Newark, New Jersey. Height 6-7, Weight 220. Married. Lives in Moss Beach, California.

Proved to be the enigma of the Giants pitching staff . . . possessed with some of the best stuff, still could do no better than a 12-14 record . . . got it going in June when he was 5-2 including a pair of shutouts against the Dodgers in Dodger Stadium, 6-0 on a two-hitter and 1-0 on a seven-hitter . . . he also had another victory against L.A., 1-0 and went 10 innings with Gary Lavelle pitching the 11th . . . against the Dodgers. Halicki was 3-0 for the season and had an ERA of 0.58 in 30 innings of work and four starting assignments . . . his other shutouts were against Chicago (2-0, two-hitter) and Philadelphia, (1-0, six-hitter) . . . Ho-Ho wound up pitching 186 innings, this despite being forced from the starting rotation twice, once with a bad arm and a second time with a bad back after a home plate collision with Cincinnati's Bill Plummer . . . the second injury caused Ed to miss the final three weeks of the season . . . he was often forced to pitch a shutout just to stay in a game because he failed to get a lot of run support . . . during one streak sandwiched around the All-Star game Halicki shut out the Cubs, 2-0, came back to shut out the Phils, 1-0, winning thanks to a Bobby Murcer 9th inning home run and then went another 5 and ⅔ innings before giving up three runs and losing to the Cubs, 3-2 . . . in that streak, Halicki put together 25 and ⅔ scoreless innings which was the high in the National League for the year . . . overall, Halicki wound up with a 3.63 earned run average and had four shutouts, second highest on the staff . . . he had 31 starts and eight complete games . . . oftentimes Ed had trouble in the early innings than got stronger and was untouchable in the late going . . . had a tough month of May (0-5) but was given just 7 runs in six starts . . . Ho-Ho (the nickname was given him by his teammates because of his size and in reference to the Jolly Green Giant) was signed by scout Buddy Kerr out of Monmouth College in West Long Branch, New Jersey . . . Halicki is a graduate of Kearny High School in New Jesey where he was All-State selection in both baseball and basketball . . . one of the Giants many backgammon players . . . played Winter ball for the Licey Club in the Dominican Republic.

LARRY DARNELL HERNDON

OUTFIELDER. Bats R, Throws R. Born November 3, 1953, in Sunflower, Mississippi. Height 6-3, Weight 190. Single. Lives in Memphis, Tennessee.

Capped a first year with the Giants by being named the "Sporting News Rookie of the Year" . . . acquired from the St. Louis organization with pitcher Tony Gonzalez in the May 9, 1975 trade that sent pitcher Ron Bryant to St. Louis . . . when Herndon was called up from Phoenix on May 1st of '76 he went on a hitting tear that saw his average reach .471 at the apex on May 24th . . . Herndon moved into the Giants starting line-up on May 20th and remained a starter until June 30th . . . the smooth-swinging Herndon put together a 14-game hitting streak from May 30th through June 13th when it was stopped in the second game of a doubleheader by Tom Seaver of the Mets . . . Larry also hit safely in 20 of 21 games . . . his fielding skills were displayed May 26th when he made a backhanded catch to rob a Houston batter and on the next play threw out a runner at the plate to complete a double play and end the inning . . . in the Giants next series, Herndon threw out a San Diego runner to help force a game into overtime . . . then the very next night he preserved a Giants extra inning win over the Dodgers by again throwing a runner out at the plate . . . Herndon has good speed, stealing 12 bases for the Giants in '76 . . . in a May 23rd 1-0 10-inning victory over Atlanta, Herndon's hustle beat a throw to second base, winning the game for the Giants and John Montefusco Herndon was originally signed by the Cardinals as their number 3 choice in the June, 1971 draft . . . Larry attended Douglass High School in Memphis where he earned four letters in football along with three in track and baseball . . . he led the Texas League with 50 steals in '74 and ranked second in the Florida State League (41) in '73 . . . attended Tennessee A.&I. University . . . played Winter ball for Magallanes club of Venezuelan League.

MARC KEVIN HILL (Musky, Boot)

CATCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born February 18, 1952, in Louisiana, Missouri. Height 6-3, Weight 210. Married, one son. Lives in Foster City, Calif.

With the trading of Dave Rader, Hill moves into an excellent position to challenge for the number one catching job . . . he'll battle Gary Alexander and Mike Sadek for the honors . . . of the three, Hill is probably the best defensive player . . . Mark didn't play as much as anticipated during the early part of the '76 season . . . then, on July 31st, while batting against the Dodgers Al Downing, Hill had his foot lock on a swing and tore cartilege in his left knee . . . he underwent surgery and was through for the year . . . he spent the winter rehabilitating the knee and visiting his parents in Elsberry, Missouri . . . if he can obtain some consistency with the bat, could wind up as regular catcher . . . has one of the best arms in the league and threw out former teammate Lou Brock on steal attempts three times in the first two games he played against St. Louis . . . Hill earned All-State honors at Lincoln County High in Elsberry in both basketball and baseball . . . made the league All-Star teams in '70 and '73 . . . the first game he caught in the majors was a two-hit shutout against Philadelphia on September 28th, 1973 . . . his first Major League hit was against the Cincinnati Reds in July of 1974 . . . his father, Edward Hill, was an outfielder in the St. Louis Browns organization in 1946.

PHILIP ROBERT JAMES (Skip)

INFIELDER-OUTFIELDER. Bats L, Throws L. Born October 21, 1949, in Elmhurst, Illinois. Height 6-0, Weight 190. Married. Lives in Overland Park, Kansas.

Skip earned a promotion to the Major League roster by compiling his highest career batting average (.298) at Phoenix last season . . . the typical spray hitter, James has never displayed much power although he did muscle up for 32 homers at Fresno in his second year of pro ball . . . what James doesn't have in power he makes up for in finesse . . . he's a great glove man at first base . . . in 1973 he led PCL first basemen in fielding, duplicated in 1974 and again last season with a .993 figure . . . in 1972 he led California League first basemen in fielding . . . gained most of the Calif. League honors that season by leading loop in runs scored, total bases, home runs and RBI . . . he was seventh in hitting, was the league's MVP, on the All-Star team and was the Topps Player of the Year . . . realized greatest baseball thrill so far when he was named the Calif. League MVP . . . was signed by scout Carl Kentling . . . attended University of Kansas and majored in Physical Education . . . played varsity baseball and football there and was named outfielder on All-Big Eight team in 1970 . . . played on Kansas' 1969 Orange Bowl football team . . . attended Shawnee Mission North High School in Overland Park.

ROBERT WESLEY KNEPPER

PITCHER. Bats L, Throws L. Born May 25, 1954, in Akron, Ohio. Height 6-2, Weight 180. Married. Lives in Calistoga, California.

This hard-throwing youngster appears to have all the potential to become a starter in the National League. With the Giants searching for a southpaw, Knepper could be the man . . . in four appearances after being recalled from Phoenix on September 7th last season, Knepper wound up 1-2 with an ERA of 3.24 . . . oddly enough, all the starts were night games . . . his 4-1 victory was against the Atlanta Braves, and it was his first Major League success . . . it came on September 28th and he went six innings, gave up five hits one earned run and struck out two before leaving for a pinch hitter . . . his two losses were toughies, 4-1 to Cincinnati and 3-1 to Los Angeles as Don Sutton became a 20-game winner for the first time . . . tied for the lead in PCL shutouts this year with 3 . . . Knepper made his first Candlestick Park appearance as a member of the 1972 North team in the Annual State Police Activities League All-Star Game . . . he once struck out 19 batters in a seven inning game and 22 in a nine inning game while pitching for Calistoga High School . . . as a senior he won 10, lost 1 . . . signed by Giants scout Eddie Montague . . . he was San Francisco's second selection in the June 1972 free agent draft, regular phase . . . made All-Star team in Pioneer League in '72 . . . in '74, Knepper led California League in wins (20) strikeouts (247), innings pitched (238) starts (30) and tied for lead in complete games 816) and winning percentage (.800) . . . was named to the league and National Association Class A All-Star teams . . . was California League's first 20-game winner since 1961 . . . capped year by winning a pair of play-off games against San Jose, one of them a six-hit shutout in the play-off opener (his first game after getting married) . . . like many lefthanders, Knepper sometimes has to battle control . . . if that's in check he'll definitely have a place in the Giants pitching plans this year.

GARY ROBERT LAVELLE (Pudge)

PITCHER. Bats R & L, Throws L. Born January 3, 1949, in Scranton, Pennsylvania. Height 6-1, Weight 190. Married, one daughter. Lives in Foster City, Calif.

Gary's 10 victories and 12 saves made him far and away the Giants most effective reliever last season . . . during the early portion of the season he was letter perfect, then struggled a bit when his arm tired . . . Gary was nearly untouchable at the start of the season, giving up no runs in his first 18 innings of relief . . . he gave up just one run in his first 35 innings (16 appearances) for an ERA of 0.26 . . . Lavelle appeared in each of the Giants first seven victories of '76 . . . Gary had his best outing in long relief on September 18th against Cincinnati . . . starter Ed Halicki was injured and Lavelle came on to pitch the final five innings, giving up just one hit and got the 5-0 victory . . . Pudge proved toughest for the St. Louis Cardinals last year . . . in 18 innings against the Cards, Lavelle gave up just one run, no runs for the first 17 innings . . . he appeared seven times against St. Louis and had a 3-0 record . . . Lavelle got his second Major League career hit, a single, against Chicago in the first game of a doubleheader May 2nd . . . for the second consecutive season, Lavelle led the Giant pitchers in appearances (65) . . . finished 40 of the 65 games in which he appeared . . . Gary was signed by scout Buddy Kerr after a baseball and basketball career at Liberty High School in Bethlehem, Pa., where he also played Little League, American Legion and Connie Mack League baseball . . . was with the U.S. Marines in the first half of 1969 season then returned to Decatur to pitch a near perfect no-hitter and post a season ERA of 1.69 . . . the effort promoted him to the Major League roster . . . was originally a starting pitcher . . . Lavelle won the Giants "Fireman of the Year" Award in 1975, awarded to him by the California Division of Forestry.

JOHNNIE LEE LEMASTER (Bones)

INFIELDER. Bats R. Throws R. Born June 19, 1954, in Portsmouth, Ohio. Height 6-2, Weight 160. Married, one daughter. Lives in Phoenix, Arizona.

After spending two months with the big league club in 1976, this smooth fielding shortstop comes into camp with a good chance of staying with the Giants all season . . . brought up from Phoenix on August 5th, filling the roster spot vacated when Marc Hill was disabled with a knee operation . . . still has to prove that he can hit big league pitching, although he did have good streaks last season . . . was 2 for 3 with a double, a triple, and three RBI on September 29th in Atlanta, pacing the Giant offense in the support of John Montefusco's no-hitter. His other big game was September 9th at Candlestick when he was 3 for 4, also against Atlanta . . . known for outstanding range and the ability to throw strongly from the hole, he says he still needs experience fielding on artificial turf, only made two miscues on natural grass . . . was the 43rd player in Major League history to hit a home run on his first Major League at bat, September 2, 1975 at Candlestick Park off the Dodgers' Don Sutton . . . graduated in 1973 from Paintsville High School in Paintsville, Kentucky where he batted .533 in his senior year and was seen by Giant scout Hugh Poland, who signed him as the Giants number one selection in the June 1973 free agent draft . . . led Pacific Coast League shortstops in assists and double plays in 1975, and was second in fielding percentage . . . also batted .292 that season, played in the league All-Star Game, was chosen the Topp's PCL Player of the Month in August, and was voted the Most Valuable Phoenix Player . . . Johnnie played Winter ball for the Licey club in the Dominican League last year . . . nicknamed "Bones" by his Major League teammates.

LYNN EVERRATT MCGLOTHEN (Mac)

PITCHER. Bats L, Throws R. Born March 27, 1950, in Monroe, Louisiana. Height 6-2, Weight 195. Married, two daughters, one son. Lives in Maryland Heights, Missouri.

This hard-throwing righthander will challenge Montefusco, Halicki, Barr and Dressler for starting assignments in '77 . . . McGlothen came to the Giants in an even trade with St. Louis for Ken Reitz on December 10th, 1976 . . . McGlothen was 13-15 with the Cardinals in '76 with an ERA of 3.91 in 205 innings . . . he struck out 106 and walked 68 . . . that total was compiled in 32 starting assignments, 10 of them complete games and four shutouts . . . missed some pitching turns because of an early season suspension . . . upped his Major League totals to 53 wins, 49 losses . . . was the Cardinals' top pitcher in 1974, leading the club in victories, strikeouts and ERA . . . tied for team lead in shutouts . . . 16 victories was third highest total in NL . . . set career high of 10 strikeouts in April 29th game against Pirates . . . was named to the All-Star squad, pitching one inning and striking out Reggie Jackson in a scoreless appearance . . . made his Major League debut with Boston, getting into 22 games in 1972 . . . suffered a knee injury after six games with Sox in '73 . . . sent to Pawtucket to pitch himself back into shape . . . he was signed by Red Sox in 1968 . . . compiled a 52-29 record in Minor Leagues before joining Boston . . . led the Carolina League in strikeouts (202) in 1970 . . . Mac received 16 letters in baseball, basketball, football and tennis at Grambling High School . . . he was named All-State in football in 1967 and was state tennis champion for three years . . . McGlothen is related to Bobby Joe Dupree, a pitcher in the San Diego organization.

RANDALL JAMES MOFFITT (Randy)

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born October 13, 1948, in Long Beach, California. Height 6-3, Weight 190. Married, one daughter. Lives in El Granada, California.

Randy started slowly but wound up leading the staff in saves (14) for the 4th consecutive year . . . he was particularly tough after the All-Star break . . . his ERA was 1.34 in 47 innings and he gave up only 3 earned runs in the last 27 innings he pitched (14 appearances) . . . Moffitt enjoyed much of his success on the Candlestick Park mound where he had 10 of the 14 saves and an ERA of 1.53 . . . Randy's longest stint was five innings against the Dodgers on July 30th where he finished up and saved a win for Charlie Williams in a 5-3 success . . . Overall, Moffitt pitched very well against Western Division opponents with an ERA of 0.64 against L.A. in 14 innings, an ERA of 1.06 against Atlanta in 17 innings and an ERA of 1.64 against Houston in ten innings . . . half of his six victories were recorded against the Dodgers . . . since becoming the Giants' Number One righthanded reliever in 1973, Moffitt has averaged 58 appearances and 13 saves per season . . . his career save total is now 58 . . . Moffitt finished 31 of the 58 games he entered last year . . . Randy's a Southern California product of Long Beach Polytechnic High School and California State College at Long Beach where he led the 49ers to a conference title in his freshman year of 1967 . . . he once pitched two consecutive shutouts against the strong Southern California Trojans, striking out 12 and 17 . . . after three seasons at Long Beach State he was chosen in the first round of the January, 1970 draft and signed by scout George Genovese . . . was in the Army during the first two months of his first pro season in Fresno . . . had a lower ERA (1.60) than the league leader (2.47) but failed by five innings to qualify for title . . . Honorable Mention on league All-Star team in '70 . . . Randy is the brother of tennis star Billie Jean King and he also plays the game on a more relaxed basis . . . he's currently building a home in the Georgia Hills, native state of his wife, Pam.

JOHN JOSEPH MONTEFUSCO (The Count)

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born May 25, 1950, in Keansburg, New Jersey. Height 6-1, Weight 180. Single. Lives in Millbrae, California.

Despite failing to reach the 20-victory plateau, Montefusco further established himself as one of the premier pitchers in the Majors . . . The Count set a personal high for wins in only his second full Major League season and got to victoriously tip his hat to the crowd in his patented way 16 times in '76 . . . The Count made fewer predictions but did accurately foresee he'd wind up with a winning percentage . . . John capped his season with the best effort of his career, a no-hitter against the Atlanta Braves on September 29th in Atlanta Stadium . . . he missed a perfect game by allowing a walk to the lead off hitter in the fourth inning . . . he threw 97 pitches, all but five of them fast balls to gain the 9-0 dazzler . . . Montefusco credited his catcher, Gary Alexander with helping him with his delivery and credited pitching coach Frank Funk with teaching him to throw the sinker . . . the no-hitter was the first time in the '76 season that Montefusco threw the sinker . . . he became the 12th member of the Giants to throw a no-hitter and joined his roomie, Ed Halicki, who had a no-no in 1975 . . . he led the Giants in complete games (11) in innings pitched (253) in strikeouts (172) in shutouts (6) and was second in starts (36) one behind Jim Barr . . . he had 12 strikeouts for his high of the season on April 28 against St. Louis . . . he had nine KO's on two other occasions, June 11 in a 5-0 shutout of New York and Aug. 13th in a 3-0 shutout of the Phils . . . apparently buoyed by his All-Star appparance, Montefusco escalated his effort . . . He was 9-6, an ERA of 2.54, 104 hits in 124 innings and eight complete games out of 17 starts after the mid-summer classic . . . in the All-Star appearance, Montefusco pitched the 6th and 7th innings, struck out two, gave up two walks and no hits . . . immediately after the All-Star break he won six of seven starts, his only loss coming to Cincinnati . . . only one pitcher (Nolan Ryan of Angels) had more shutouts than Montefusco as his total of 6 tied Jon Matlack of Mets for National League high . . . he was particularly stingy against St. Louis, (five runs in 22 innings for a 1.64 ERA) Atlanta, (seven runs in 33 innings for 1.36) and the Mets, (one run in 17 innings, 0.53) . . . The Count was 9-5 at Candlestick Park . . . a weak hitting infielder at Middletown, N.J. Township High School when he didn't pitch, John didn't impress any pro scouts . . . played semi-pro ball and even fast-pitch softball for the telephone company team in New Jersey, then went to Brookdale Community College in Lincroft, N.J., and persuaded the late Giant scout, Frank Burke to take a took at him . . . Burke and Buddy Kerr recommended his signing and John immediately told them he'd be in the majors in two years . . . good to his word, he advanced quickly and did something sensational at every level of competition . . . in 1973 he completed 11 of 12 starts and had the second leading ERA of 2.18 at Decatur in the Midwest League . . .

impressed the top brass with a 6-1 record and a 1.29 ERA in 49 innings (17 BB, 47 SO) in the winter Arizona Instructional League, then went to Amarillo in the Texas League to start the 1974 season . . . was leading the Texas League in strikeouts when promoted to Phoenix of the AAA Pacific Coast League in July when Halicki came up to San Francisco . . . with Phoenix he completed seven of 11 starts with three shutouts and 90 strikeouts in 77 innings, including a PCL record equaling eight consecutive batters fanned on August 11th . . . capped the incredible rise to the majors to make it within his two year prediction on September 3rd in, of all places, Dodger Stadium . . . hours after getting off the plane from Phoenix John entered the game in relief of Ron Bryant in the first inning with the Dodgers ahead 3-2, no outs and the bases loaded . . . the Count finished the game, allowing just six hits and one run, slammed a two-run homer in his first official at bat, survived a hard shot off his leg and a collision on the first base line to win the game, 9-5 . . . he's always displayed exceptional poise on the mound . . . his next goal, is winning the National League's Cy Young Award . . . was Citizens Savings' Northern California Athlete of the Month for September 1976 . . . John's hobbies include riding horses, he owns two of them, one named "The Count", the other "Silven Hill", a thoroughbred . . . he also spend time at Bay Meadows Race Track in the off-season working in the Publicity Department . . . that will be limited however now that he's gone into the restaurant business . . . he and former teammate John D'Acquisto have opened a spot called Montefusco's Caffé and D'Acquisto's Lounge at Bay and Powell near San Francisco's Fisherman's Wharf area . . . that also ties in with another of his pastimes, cooking.

BILL MADLOCK JR.

INFIELDER. Bats R, Throws R. Born January 12, 1951, in Memphis, Tennessee. Height 5-11, Weight 185. Married, two children. Lives in Barrington, Illinois.

Bill came to the Giants in one of the major trades during the off-season . . . he and Rob Sperring moved to San Francisco in exchange for Bobby Murcer, Steve Ontiveros and minor league pitcher Andrew Muhlstock . . . by dealing for the National League batting champion in '75 and '76, the Giants solved two problems . . . Madlock becomes the third baseman needed to replace the traded Ken Reitz and his hitting credentials seem to offer what the Giants need . . . more day to day consistency at the plate . . . Madlock won his second batting title by getting four hits the final day of the '76 season, thereby beating out Cincinnati's Ken Griffey by three points . . . in only three major league seasons, Madlock has won the batting title twice and finished fifth in 1974 despite spending five weeks on the disabled list . . . Bill has established himself as one of the purest hitters in the game . . . his short-stroking style has allowed him to compile the highest lifetime batting average of any active major league player (.337) which puts him ahead of Rod Carew's .328 . . . Madlock's '76 season produced his career highs in doubles, homers and runs batted in . . . Bill rapped three doubles in a game against the Dodgers on May 5th at Chicago . . . that was the National League high for the season (later tied by 4 others) . . . "Mad" clubbed the

Cubs only Grand Slam homer last season. June 18th off Max Leon in Atlanta . . . that was GS number two for Madlock, his previous being a pinch homer off Don Sutton of the Dodgers, August 28, 1974 . . . on the way to his batting title. Madlock put together a 17-game hitting streak, 8/2-8/17, high for the Cubs . . . when he won the Batting Title in '75, Madlock was only 24, the second youngest to win the crown since Tommy Davis did it in 1963 at age 23 . . . Madlock has great bat control and has been among the top ten in toughest to strike out the last two seasons and in 1976 struck out an average of only once every 21 plate appearances . . . while keeping his hitting at a championship level, Bill also improved his fielding . . . he was fourth in percentages among NL third basemen and he cut his errors down to 14 compared to 20 in 1975 . . . Madlock shared NL Player of the Week honors with new teammate John Montefusco for the final selection in 1976 . . . in coming to the Giants, Madlock will be joining teammate Vic Harris who also moves to SF this season . . . Madlock and Harris were traded from Texas to Chicago for pitcher Ferguson Jenkins on October 27, 1973 . . . Madlock was originally signed by Ellsworth Brown of the Washington Senators . . . prior to signing he was picked No. 268 in the free agent draft of 1968 . . . he was contacted by Cardinals but didn't sign . . . then he went No. 99 in the secondary phase and signed with Senators . . . Bill once tied PCL single game record by going 6 for 6 in 1973 . . . he graduated from Eisenhower High School in Decatur, Ill. and lettered in baseball at Keokuk (Iowa) Jr. College

CHARLES ANTHONY PEPPER

INFIELDER. Bats L, Throws L. Born December 24, 1952, in Washington, D. C. Height 6-3, Weight 205. Married, one son. Lives in Sacramento, Calif.

Once thought to have the same potential as Willie McCovey, Tony Pepper dropped from Triple A to Double A and struggled to keep his statistics at a respectacle level . . . Pepper is the power slugger who may never hit for the good average but gets the long hits . . . his homer production was a bit disappointing in 1976 with nine for the Lafayette Drillers . . . included was a grand slam homer against Arkansas . . . Pepper also acted as a pinch hitter and a designated hitter, hitting .429 as the former and .206 as the latter . . . Pepper is a good fielding first baseman who led the Pacific Coast League in putouts, assists and double plays in 1975 . . . Tony is a graduate of Grant Union High School in Sacramento where scout Eddie Montague signed him for the Giants after he was picked on the second round of the June 1971 draft . . . Pepper was an all-around athlete at Grant, being named to the All-North Metropolitan League and All-Sacramento teams in both baseball and football and also starring on the basketball court . . . played in the 1971 PAL California North-South All-Star Game at Anaheim Stadium . . . works for the Sacramento Recreation Department in the off-season . . . this year played Winter ball for Culiacan club of the Mexican League.

NEW YORK GIANTS: 26—Wins, 1916
13—Losses, 1902, 1944

FRANK JOSEPH RICCELLI

PITCHER. Bats L, Throws L. Born February 24, 1953, in Syracuse, New York. Height 6-2, Weight 185. Single. Lives in Syracuse, N. Y.

Called up on September 7th of last year, Riccelli made three starts for the Giants and posted a 1-1 record . . . he defeated San Diego and Randy Jones on September 15th going seven innings . . . that victory was Riccelli's first Major League win and it was also significant because the 2-1 decision moved the Giants ahead of the Padres, into fourth place where they eventually finished . . . Riccelli's other appearances were starting assignments against Cincinnati and Houston and a relief showing against the Astros . . . Frank wound up with a 9-11 mark at Phoenix and again had to battle his control . . . a post-season operation on his pitching shoulder in 1974 tempered Riccelli's speed slightly . . . the following season he still was fourth in strikeouts, first in innings pitched and second in winning percentage (.700) with Lafayette of the Texas League in 1975 . . . with the Giants searching for a starting southpaw, Riccelli has as good a chance as anyone to remain with the big club in '77 . . . Frank was the Giants first choice in the June 1971 draft and was signed by scout Buddy Kerr out of Christian Brothers Academy in Syracuse, New York where he played both baseball and basketball.

MICHAEL GEORGE SADEK

CATCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born May 30, 1946, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Height 5-9, Weight 165. Married, two children. Lives in Walnut Creek, California.

Serving as the Giants back-up catcher last year, Sadek got into 55 games . . . he had 19 hits and 7 RBI and even though it's a cliche, he was ready whenever called upon . . . relegated to bull pen catching with just an occasional start, Sadek nevertheless managed to keep up a fine attitude . . . in limited batting appearances he hit .500 against Houston and .333 against St. Louis . . . Mike's forte is his defense although he'll occasionally muscle up . . . is a fine man to sacrifice and helped win an 11 inning ball game for the Giants against the Dodgers on September 8th last year when he came off the bench and laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt to move a runner from second to third where he subsequently scored on a fly to give Ed Halicki a 1-0 win . . . a veteran of 10 pro campaigns, Mike was originally signed out of the University of Minnesota by the Twins organization and came to the Giants in the Minor League draft after the 1969 season . . . while at Minnesota, he was the All-Big Ten Catcher in 1967 . . . attended Richfield High School in Minneapolis . . . worked for the Giants during the off-season helping to sell season tickets to local businesses.

HORACE ARTHUR SPEED III

OUTFIELDER. Bats R, Throws R. Born October 4, 1951, in Los Angeles, California. Height 6-1, Weight 180. Married. Lives in Phoenix, Arizona.

Spent the entire season with the Phoenix Giants . . . saw his average dip to its lowest since his rookie year . . . hit .243 for the PCL club and struck out 128 times in 134 games . . . Speed will be at his third Major League training camp and will be trying to make the Giants as a utility outfielder . . . has fine defensive skills and runs well . . . made his way up the baseball ladder by playing Little League, Pony League, Babe Ruth League, American Legion and Connie Mack ball . . . signed by scout George Genovese after being Giants third selection in the June 1969 draft . . . in his first season was named to the Pioneer League All-Star squad and played in the Pacific Coast League All-Star game in 1975 and went 2 for 5 with 4 RBI and was voted the game's MVP . . . his first professional home run was a grand slam for Great Falls in the Pioneer Rookie League on August 1, 1969 . . . on May 28, 1971, Speed tied a California League record by hitting three home runs in one game, against Visalia . . . attended Mesa Community College in Arizona for one semester . . . works for real estate development firm during the off season . . . was only player in the PCL to hit a home run in each of the eight ball parks in 1976 . . . also led PCL in getting hit by pitches (9) for the season.

DERREL OSBON THOMAS

INFIELDER. Bats R & L, Throws R. Born January 14, 1951, in Los Angeles, California. Height 6-0, Weight 160. Single. Lives in Los Angeles.

Derrel struggled through a stormy season in which he lost his starting job and spent two months on the disabled list . . . his 81 games were the fewest he's played since moving to the majors . . . during the early weeks of the '76 season, Derrel looked like one of the premier second basemen in the league and he and Chris Speier were sometimes spectacular as a double play combination . . . despite the somewhat limited action, Derrel contributed three game winning RBI and four go-ahead RBI . . . he also pinch hit 11 times with two hits . . . his best outings were against Cincinnati where he played in 6 games and had six hits in 20 at bats for a .300 average and 10 for 33 and .303 against his former San Diego club . . . Derrel was acquired by the Giants from San Diego on December 6, 1974 in exchange for infielder Tito Fuentes . . . he was originally in the Houston organization and got his first Major League action with the Astros in 1972 before going to the Padres on December 3 of that year along with pitchers Bill Greif and Mark Schaeffer for southpaw Dave Roberts . . . Thomas was signed out of Dorsey High School in Los Angeles by Houston and he was the first man selected in the January 1969 draft . . . hit only the second home run from the right side of the plate off Pittsburgh's Jerry Reuss on April 23 at Candlestick . . . his other 14 Major League homers have been hit as a lefthanded batter . . . Thomas and Vic Harris are the only switch-hitters on the roster outside of pitchers Gary Lavelle and Greg Minton.

GARY LEAH THOMASSON

OUTFIELDER-INFIELDER. Bats L, Throws L. Born July 29, 1951, in San Diego, California. Height 6-1, Weight 180. Single. Lives in Sherman Oaks, California.

For the fourth consecutive year, Gary played in over 100 games for the Giants but he's still looking for a position he can call his own . . . Gary played in four spots in '76, 44 games in center field, 39 games at first base, nine games in right field and one game in left field . . . Gary's hitting ability and his strong throwing arm are three reasons the Giants want him on the roster . . . Thomasson's start in '76 was slowed because of a sprained ankle he suffered in an exhibition game against Santa Clara University on April 29th . . . after coming off the disabled list in June, he hit .274 including five doubles and two homers . . . he finished very strong, hitting .286 with 30 hits in 105 at bats in September . . . Thomasson also hit .272 after the All-Star break . . . had a respectable .290 batting average against Western Division clubs including .306 against Cincinnati, .333 against the Dodgers, .286 against Houston and .275 against San Diego . . . led the club with five triples, was tied for third in doubles with 20 . . . he also had a pair of pinch hit home runs, five game-winning RBI and six go-ahead RBI . . . his eight home runs were his Major League high and likewise his 38 RBI . . . was eight out of 11 in steals raising his Major League total to 26 steals in 31 attempts . . . graduated from Oceanside High in 1969 and signed by scout George Genovese in June of that year . . . Gary was an All-San Diego C.I.F. selection as a senior . ... selected to the 1973 Topps Major League Rookie All-Star Team . . . is also a recent inductee to the Oceanside High Hall of Fame . . . at one time was a professional musician (guitarist) in the off season . . . spent this last winter hunting and fishing in Colorado and made his first venture into real estate . . . expects to be a new bridegroom during spring training.

THOMAS HOWARD TOMS (Tommy)

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born October 15, 1951, in Charlottesville, Virginia. Height 6-4, Weight 195. Lives in Greenwood, Virginia.

After spending parts of two campaigns with the Giants, Tommy is looking for a permanent spot in the varsity's 1977 bullpen . . . Tommy has been a strong, consistent reliever throughout his professional career . . . he has only started twice . . . his best pitch is a sinker, and is strong enough to pitch often . . . was called up September 5th after tying a Pacific Coast League record by posting 21 saves . . . pitched for the Giants on September 7th against Atlanta, preserving Jim Barr's victory and picking up his first Major League save . . . his longest Major League outing was September 23rd of last season against Los Angeles when he pitched three innings and retired nine consecutive Dodgers . . . in addition to sinker, he baffles hitters with a lot of motion . . . joined the Giants on May 2nd of 1975, but received a leg injury and was optioned back to Phoenix . . . has a Bachelor of Science degree from East Carolina University, where he pitched varsity for two years, receiving All-Southern Conference honors twice . . . he was 6-3 with a 1.42 ERA his first year, and 7-2 with a 0.93 ERA his second year . . . he still attends ECU in the off-season, working on a Masters degree . . . he was the Giants sixth selection in the June, 1973 free-agent draft, signed by scout Gil English.

CHARLES PROSEK WILLIAMS (Knuck-Z)

PITCHER. Bats R, Throws R. Born October 11, 1947, in Flushing, New York. Height 6-2, Weight 200. Married. Lives in Foster City, California.

Charlie's 1976 season was less than satisfying to him. An early season injury kept him from performing regularly and then when he was available, management couldn't decide whether he should be a spot starter or work strictly in the bullpen as a long reliever . . . there's no question Charlie can throw hard enough to be a Major League winner . . . regular work may be the answer . . . his 2-0 year brought his Major League won lost total to 16-14 . . . his victories were over Houston and San Diego . . . he was tough on Chicago and Pittsburgh, giving up no runs to either team, in seven appearances against the Cubs and four against the Pirates . . . Williams also had one save and a respectable ERA of 2.96 in 85 innings . . . in eight appearances in the month of July he didn't give up an earned run and gave up just four earned runs in 17 mound performances in April and May and had his ERA at 1.80 at the All-Star break . . . Williams was born practically on the site where Shea Stadium now stands . . . he signed with the New York Mets out of Parsons College in Iowa where he was a business administration major . . . oddly enough, his first Major League victory came at Candlestick Park over the Giants and Juan Marichal on June 2, 1971 . . . he was acquired by the Giants less than a year later, May 11, 1972, in the trade for Willie Mays.

WILLIE LEE McCOVEY

INFIELDER. Bats L, Throws L. Born January 10, 1938, in Mobile, Alabama. Height 6-4, Weight 210. Single. Lives in Woodside, California.

It seems only appropriate that after contributing so much to baseball and the city of San Francisco, Willie McCovey should end his Major League career where it began . . . it started in the City by the Bay on July 30, 1959 when Willie tied the record for most hits by a player in his first Major League game, collecting two singles and two triples . . . he went on that year to bat .354 with 13 home runs and 38 RBI in 52 games, and collected the National League Rookie of the Year Award, the second in as many seasons for the young San Francisco franchise . . . Willie holds the National League record for most career home runs hit by a first baseman, and he has hit three homers in a game on three occasions, September 22, 1963 and April 22, 1964 (on consecutive plate appearances), and also hit three in a game on September 17, 1966 . . . he is tied with Hank Aaron for the career grand slam mark (16) . . . of his career home runs, 413 were hit in a Giant uniform, putting him third on the Giants All-Time List . . . he has won the National League Slugging Title three times, 1968, 1969, and 1970 . . . Willie captured the National League Most Valuable Player and Sporting News Player of the Year awards in 1969, when he led the National League in home runs and RBI, and was 5th in the batting race . . . he played on the National League All-Star Team, highlighted in 1969 when he belted a pair of homers, off John "Blue Moon" Odom and Denny McLain, leading the Nationals to a 9-3 romp over the American League . . . played for the Giants in the 1962 World Series and the 1971 playoffs . . . he reached the height of frustration by making the last out in the 1962 World Series, a line shot that was snagged by Yankee second baseman Bobby Richardson, with the Giants losing 1-0 and two runners in scoring position . . . Willie was originally signed by Giant scout Alex Pompez in 1955, he was traded by the Giants to San Diego, along with Bernie Williams for pitcher Mike Caldwell on October 25, 1973, and comes back to the Giant spring camp in Phoenix as a free agent in 1977 .

LON SIMMONS BECOMES THE GIANTS #1 ANNOUNCER FOR THE 1977 SEASON. IT'S LON'S SECOND CONSECUTIVE SEASON ON THE GIANTS BROADCASTS. HE TEMPORARILY RETIRED FROM THE BASEBALL BOOTH IN 1974 AFTER WORKING GIANT GAMES FROM THE TEAM'S INCEPTION IN THE BAY AREA IN 1958. ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR AND RESPECTED SPORTCASTERS IN THE BAY AREA, SIMMONS NOT ONLY DOES PLAY-BY-PLAY FOR THE GIANTS BUT ALSO FOR THE SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS. HE'S ALSO DONE BASKETBALL PLAY-BY-PLAY FOR GOLDEN STATE WARRIORS TELECASTS AND THE COLLEGIATE U.S.F. DONS.

LON WILL BE AIDED BY JOE ANGEL, THE PRESENT KSFO SPORTS DIRECTOR WHO WILL BE JOINING THE GIANTS BROADCASTS ON A FULL TIME BASIS. ANGEL CURRENTLY HAS A 15-MINUTE AFTERNOON SPORTS SHOW ON KSFO. HE FORMERLY WAS SPORTS DIRECTOR OF CHANNEL FOUR IN SAN FRANCISCO AND WAS MORNING SPORTS DIRECTOR ON RADIO STATION KCBS. ANGEL SERVED APPRENTICESHIP DUTIES IN CALIFORNIA CITIES SUCH AS SANTA ROSA, SAN BERNARDINO AND FRESNO.

FOR GIANTS TELECASTS, SIMMONS WILL BE JOINED BY GARY PARK, THE SPORTS DIRECTOR OF KTVU, CHANNEL TWO, THE GIANTS TELEVISION OUTLET IN THE BAY AREA. PARK WILL BE DOING THE GIANTS BROADCASTS FOR THE 7TH YEAR. GARY JOINED KTVU AS FEATURE REPORTER IN 1967 AFTER WORKING FIVE YEARS AT KCRA IN SACRAMENTO.

S.F. NO-HIT SECTION AT COOPERSTOWN

The San Francisco Giants have a no-hitter section at the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. Juan Marichal, Gaylord Perry, Ed Halicki and John Montefusco have thrown no-hitters for the San Francisco club. The cap worn and the ball used by those pitchers during the no-hitters are on display among the game's historic mementos. Added significance was placed on Montefusco's no-hitter because it'll be the last one thrown with a Spalding ball. This season the National League has switched to Rawlings as the official baseball.

The Giants Cactus league schedule includes a total of four games against the Cleveland Indians. This match-up is the longest spring training rivalry in existence. Since 1934, the Giants and Indians have played a total of 462 games, the Giants winning 242 and Cleveland 211 with nine ties. Last season the club's played just one spring training game because of the curtailed exhibition schedule.

Major League Weapons.

Did you know that more major leaguers depend on Rawlings gloves and mitts than any other brand? It's no wonder with innovations like Holdster Finger slot, Basket Web, Fastback construction... features that pay off in sure-handed fielding.

And for base-clearing power, it's tough to beat the Big Stick bat with the Pro Ring... that's Adirondack. Watch how many professionals take that Pro Ring to the plate this year.

You'll find the same professional quality built into all Rawlings and Adirondack baseball and softball equipment... in every league. So check out the entire line—from gloves, bats and balls to uniforms, shoes and field equipment.

Then... choose your weapons.

Rawlings ADIRONDACK®

Rawlings' Baseballs Move Into the Major Leagues

Consistency of quality, durability, exacting manufacturing standards. That's what makes a major league baseball. That's why beginning with the 1977 baseball season, the Major Leagues will play with the Rawlings' baseball. The big leagues recognize that the day to day play of the baseball demands day to day quality standards that are in a class all by themselves. Their choice of the Rawlings' baseball tells it all. If it's their choice, shouldn't it be yours?
